Dear Ms Wong,

Thank you for your correspondence of 14 November about COVID-19 vaccine eligibility. I apologise for the delay in replying.

I appreciate your concerns.

The aim of the COVID-19 immunisation programme is to prevent serious disease arising from COVID-19. The Government has received advice from the independent Joint Committee on Vaccination and Immunisation (JCVI) about eligibility for the 2025 spring and autumn COVID-19 vaccination programmes, and about the spring 2026 programme. The Government has accepted JCVI advice on eligibility for the spring 2025 COVID-19 vaccination programme. It is now considering the advice for autumn 2025 and spring 2026 carefully and will respond in due course.

I hope this reply is helpful.

Yours sincerely,

Andrew Gwynne
